Mrs. Gusta Olson ✓

Funeral services for Mrs. Gusta (Olof) Olson, 84, of Claremont, were held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Methodist Church at Claremont with the Rev. Preston Brown officiating. Burial was in the Groton cemetery.

Manley Green, soloist, and a quartet, namely, Rodney Barnes, Ronald Odland, Dean Cutler and Manley Green, accompanied by Mrs. George Pierson, sang two hymns.

Pall bearers were Donald Doctor, Douglas Cole, Gary Olson, Darwin Frey, Darl Olson and John Knecht.

Mrs. Olson died Tuesday, March 23, 1965 at the Bethesda Nursing Home at Webster.

She was born Sept. 2, 1880, in Norway, and moved to Chandler, Minn., in 1891. She was married to Olof Olson at Chandler in May, 1898.

They moved to the Claremont community in 1903 and Mrs. Olson lived there until about six years ago when she went to the Bethesda Nursing Home.

She leaves four sons, Glen, Claremont; Chester, Burbank, Calif.; Leonard, Bath, and Raymond, Claremont; two daughters, Mrs. Fred (Mae) Bodendorfer, Britton, and Mrs. Harry (Hazel) Frey, Claremont; ten grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

Her husband and an infant son preceded her in death.
